

GENERAL CONDITIONS RENTAL

ARTICLE I. The service organization Pro Velo asbl/vzw («the owner»), charged with renting out bicycles, has the right to examine the capacities and fitness of participants to ride a bicycle in the framework of Pro Velo services. The person renting the bicycle (hereafter referred to as «the tenant»), declares to be fit for using a bicycle and not to suffer from any medical counter indication.

ARTICLE II. The rented material (bicycle and accessories) remains the full property of Pro Velo asbl/vzw during the entire period of rent. The tenant cannot lend or sublet the material to a third party without the consent of Pro Velo asbl/vzw.

ARTICLE III. The tenant declares that the bicycle is in perfect working order, and commits themselves to use it with proper care, to see after its maintenance, and to return it after the period of rent, in the same condition as they received it, and to return it to the owner at the date and venue stipulated in the contract. Any delay will be indicated to the owner. The tenant knows the condition, size, and model of the bicycle. Before leaving, the tenant has the right to try the bicycle. If it does not seem to correspond to the expectations, they can ask for replacement. After departure, the tenant has accepted the bicycle in its current state.

ARTICLE IV. Pro Velo has the right to recover the damages caused to the bike during the period of rent, either by deducting a sum off the deposit, or by invoice, the tenant hereby agrees to this arrangement.

ARTICLE V. If a bike turns inoperative during the period of rent, the tenant needs the permission of Pro Velo before ordering any repair, and they will provide an invoice of the costs of repair. The tenant can in no case reclaim damage or interests for lost benefit during the period of rent.

ARTICLE VI. The day package corresponds to a maximum of 24-hour rental or a working day of the establishment. The half-day package corresponds to 4-hour rental. In case of exceeding the agreed upon rental period, a surcharge is due based on the hourly rate.

ARTICLE VIII. The tenant commits her/himself to declare any loss or theft of the bicycle and/or its parts to the local police authorities within 24 hours. The renter undertakes to store the bike in a secure location between 10pm and 6am and to always secure the bike to a fixed point using the lock provided.

ARTICLE IX. If the tenant contravenes any law or regulation during the period of rent, Pro Velo can in no case be held responsible. Cyclists ride on their own responsibility and abide by traffic regulations.

ARTICLE X. Rental cost of bicycles and accessories must be paid beforehand. The hirer must hand over an identity card. Pro Velo reserves the right to request an additional deposit of 150 € per hired standard bicycle and a deposit of 300 € per other type of bicycle. The deposit will be returned to the hirer once the bicycles and accessories have been inspected.

ARTICLE XI. Driver's liability for infractions. The tenant is liable for any offence committed during the driving and use of the rented vehicle. The tenant shall pay to Pro Velo asbl/vzw on the first demand the fines, costs, expenses and taxes resulting from an infringement of the Highway Code committed by the tenant. A postage and administration fee will be added to any document sent. In the event of a request by the competent authorities, you authorize us to communicate your details as the driver of the vehicle. Any dispute about the validity of the fine or the fee must be made directly to the authority that imposed it, and cannot influence the request for reimbursement by Pro Velo.
